WELCOME TO OUR OCTOBER NEWSLETTER

October is always a transition month. For those that haven't had enough diving they can still get in a dive or before the water becomes to "hard" to dive in. If as October ends you haven't had enough diving for the year, a drysuit course can get you another dive or two this session.

DEMA, the annual scuba trade show is this month so I'll have reports on all the new equipment I find during my week in Las Vegas.

It's not too early to start putting together your holiday wish list. If your wish list includes additions to your dive locker we can help. Blue Ocean Divers has a "gift registry" so even your non-diving friends can get you exactly what your dive locker needs.

Happy reading,

Mach10 Mike

Trivia Contest

When you looked at the questions, did you get them both correct? Did you include both your first and last name? If you forget to fill in your name, we can't pull your name out of the old dive hood! Many of you participated and did get both of them correct. Well, the names are in the old dive hood and the name is... Colleen Brown. So Colleen, come on in to Blue Ocean Divers and pick up your tee-shirt.

How can you win a Blue Ocean Divers tee-shirt? Go to our website and answer the 2 Trivia questions. Upon submittal you will be told if you found the correct answers to the questions. Your chances in the drawing will be based on the number of questions you answered correctly. If you answer both questions correctly you will have 2 chances in the drawing. If you answer only one correctly you will get one chance in the drawing.

Breakout your RDPs, review your buoyancy concepts. There even may be questions from the new Digital Underwater Photography Specialty. If it's been awhile since you looked at any of your course books, a PADI Encyclopedia of Recreational Diving book might be a good investment. Good Luck to one and all.

Educational Opportunities

PADI Open Water Diver

October sees our PADI Open Water classes coming to an end. We can always be talked into another class if you have a friend that just can't wait! We were hoping to be able to offer a class this fall with a trip to Ft. Lauderdale for the certification dives. Unfortunately Tropical Storm Faye shortened our time in Ft. Lauderdale and we were not able to finalize details.

The Unknown Diver

Hello Divers,

It doesn't seem right that the calendar has turned to October. While there is still some opportunity to enjoy our favorite pastime, sadly our local season it is growing to a close. I hope all who read this had lots of bottom time and many great adventures. By the postings on the certification board at Blue Ocean Divers it sure enough looks like lots of folks had a great season. Entries include; Open and Advanced Open Water Divers, Rescue Divers, Specialty Divers and Dive Masters. Congratulations to all!

To all the freshly certified Open Water divers, a special tip of the hood. You are now part of a very special group. Very few people you come in contact with can make this claim to fame. You are a SCUBA DIVER. You took the time and effort to qualify to explore two thirds of the world from a very different perspective. For those completing advanced training I have several thoughts. The most obvious being that you have gained additional skills to enhance your experience. A wise choice indeed. Beyond that the latest batch of Advanced Open Water Divers may very well be our next Rescue Divers. Newly certified Rescue Divers may become Dive Masters, and ultimately Instructors.

All important to assure more of the populace join our ranks as safe and competent divers. That is a good thing.

That being said I would be remiss if I didn't share at least one of the highlights of my September sabbatical with Dive Master Earl and his bride "Sweetie". Get a load of this...

We met the couple one morning for breakfast at the Kracker Barrel I had my dog with me and had rolled down the car windows to make sure the pup had fresh air. He was stretched full-out on the back seat and I wanted to impress upon him that he must remain there. I walked to the curb backward, pointing my finger at the car and saying emphatically, 'Now you stay. Do you hear me?' 'Stay! Stay!' Sweetie who was waiting in one of the sidewalk rocking chairs, gave me a strange look and said, 'Why don't you just put it in park?' 'Ya' gotta love her!!

PADI EANx32 RDP Recall

PADI Americas recently discovered an error in some printings of the English language, Imperial EANx32 RDP. No other version of the RDP is affected. Although the risk of injury is exceedingly remote and no injuries have been reported, this table is being recalled. The affected Imperial EANx32 RDP has the following product number and product code (found in the lower right corner on the back of the table).

Product No. 60049 Ver 1.2 (Rev 02/03) XXXPDK7

The product code digits indicated by "X" may vary. The last four digits "PDK7" indicate a recalled table, irrespective of what the first three digits are. As a double check, on Table 3, check the 110 foot row under Pressure Group G. The table should indicate a Residual Nitrogen Time (upper number in white) of 13 and an Actual Bottom Time (lower number in green) of 12. If this box is blank, you have a misprinted table. If you have an EANx RDP (product number 60049) with the production code of XXXPDK7 and/or a blank box where described, please return it to your PADI Dive Center/Resort or return it to PADI America at the address below, as soon as possible.

DO NOT PLAN YOUR DIVES USING THIS TABLE.

Your RDP will be replaced with a new table at no charge to you. You may send your table to:

Sunset Waters in Curacao

If you missed out on our 2008 Sunset Waters, Curacao you missed out on a very fun trip. The diving was great! We saw all the usual fish with lots of eels, file fish, puffer fish, drum fish, nudibranchs and sea horses. I had more than one diver tell me that the house reef was the best dive site on the island. Not that any of them were wanting, just that the house reef had so much to offer.

The food and service was its usual superior level. I found out that rabbit has lots of bones making it a little difficult to enjoy. We had lots of foods to pick from with made to order eggs in the morning, American or local dishes at lunch and dinner ranged from barbeque one night, steaks and seafood.

Our next trip back is booked for February 14-21, 2009. we are flying Delta Airlines from Philadelphia with a stop in Atlanta then on to Curacao. We will have 6 days of 2 tank boat dives and the usual unlimited shore diving. Meals and all standard beverages are included. Of course use of all non-motorized beach toys are there for your pleasure. We have multiple room options for this trip! Bringing a family? We have a selection of rooming options for everyone and every family. Get your non-refundable deposit of $500.00 in now to make sure you share all the fun!
